

BONNATA KWS

BONATTA KWS is an attractive second early maturing variety with smooth bright yellow skin. This pale yellow fleshed variety is suitable as a main crop yellow but also suitable for home fries due to its higher dry matter content. Bonnata KWS grows well in all soil types and has good resistance to common scab and powdery scab.

TABLE/FRESH

ORGANIC

BAKER

EARLY HARVEST

PROCESSING

Tuber Characteristics

- |                |                   |
|----------------|-------------------|
| • Tuber Shape  | round/ round oval |
| • Flesh Color  | Light yellow      |
| • Eye Depth    | shallow           |
| • Skin Color   | Light yellow      |
| • Skin Texture | Smooth            |
| • Dormancy     | Good              |
| • Tuber Size   | Fairly large      |

Resistances

- |                  |             |
|------------------|-------------|
| • Scab           | High        |
| • PVY            | Medium-high |
| • Foliage Blight | Medium-high |
| • Tuber Blight   | Medium-high |
| • Damages        | Medium      |
| • Bruising       | Medium      |
| • Nematodes      | -           |

Yield and Quality

- |                    |       |
|--------------------|-------|
| • Yield            | High  |
| • Tubers per plant | 13-15 |
| • Cooking Type     | B/C   |
| • Dry Matter       | 21%   |

Remarks

- Nice skin finish and bright appearance
- Resistance to common and powdery scab
- Very suitable for home fries